The Bank may require any other insurance policy or supplementary coverage it shall deem necessary provided that such insurance is considered necessary, standard, useful or convenient by the Bank under the circumstances including, in the case of divided co-ownership, the insurance policy insuring the immovable and the common portions. If the Immovable is an income producing property, the Bank may refuse to make a disbursement if such disbursement is not authorized by the Loan Insurer and it shall retain at all times an amount sufficient to allow the work to be completed in accordance with the drawings and specifications it has approved and ensure compliance with the conditions pertaining to meeting the rental income objectives. You shall deliver to the Bank, prior to each disbursement of the loan, a certificate of the professionals (architects/engineer) stating that the work is completed in compliance with the drawings and specifications approved by the relevant regulatory authority.

Furthermore, you undertake to notify the Bank of the existence of any legal construction hypothec within three days from being aware of its registration.

In accordance with section 6 "LAND CHARGES AND OTHER PRIOR CLAIMS" hereof, you shall pay monthly to the Bank, on the same date as your periodic payments, the amount which the Bank shall indicate to you, which it can revise from time to time, to ensure the payment of the land charges which may affect the Immovable within the twelve following months. You shall deliver forthwith to the Bank all the documents you may receive respecting these land charges.

You may manage the Immovable by yourself provided that such management is sound and prudent and compares with that provided by businesses specialized in such matters.

You shall, within four months following the end of each fiscal year, deliver to the Bank your financial statements and those related to the Immovable, prepared in the form approved by the Bank.

You shall not grant another hypothec on the Immovable without the prior written approval of the Bank.
