Answers to your questions about the B2B Bank HIIA

How can the B2B Bank HIIA benefit you?

With the B2B Bank HIIA, you benefit from worry-free thinking and your client benefits from knowing the interest rate they earn will always be competitive. You'll also be able to easily manage your client's accounts through FundSERV. T+1 settlement ensures that the funds are readily available to respond to other investment opportunities. Plus, you have the flexibility to earn a 25 bps trailer with the A Series or pass 25 bps in additional interest to your client with the F Series.

How can the B2B Bank HIIA benefit your clients?

The B2B Bank HIIA is a savings account that is unaffected by stock market fluctuations — unlike typical investment products — and therefore provides a safe harbour for investors.

With no lock-in period or maturity dates, the HIIA can be readily accessed and that means you are able to respond quickly to other investment opportunities on behalf of your client. There is also no minimum investment and no hidden fees, making the HIIA an affordable savings solution.

In addition, your client can rest assured knowing that their investment is CDIC eligible, and leave the administration on their account up to you, their advisor.

How is the interest paid?

Interest is calculated daily on the closing balance and paid monthly. The default payment method for the B2B Bank HIIA is to have the interest paid as a distribution into the B2B Bank HIIA. Investors can also choose to have interest paid to the cash component of their account, but in this case, they will not benefit from compound interest.
