

Three steps to RSP lending

As you have conversations with your clients about an RSP loan, we want to ensure the experience is optimal for you and for them. At B2B Bank, we see RSP lending in three simple steps.

1. Know your client – Identify your client’s need

You likely have clients who would benefit from an RSP loan. Do you know who they are? Have you asked the right questions to understand their needs?

MONEY

- Who has unused RRSP contribution room?
- What are their long-term goals?
- How much will they need in their retirement?

RATE OF RETURN (ROR)

- What is their risk tolerance?
- What types of investments are suitable for them?

TIME

- When do they plan to retire (e.g. age 65)?
- How much time left do they have to contribute (i.e. 71 minus their age)?

2. Know your product – Determine what type of RSP loan works for your client

Sometimes it helps to see the numbers. While some clients like to pay off their RSP loan quickly, a longer-term loan may be more affordable each month if monthly cash flow is a concern.

3. Know your money – Understand the 4Cs of RSP loans

It's one thing to want a loan. It's another getting approved for a loan. Here are some of the criteria to review with your client before applying.

Criteria	Description	Example
Capacity	Can your client repay their debt? $\frac{\text{Monthly loan payments}}{\text{Gross monthly income}} = \text{Total Debt Service Ratio (TDSR)}$	TDSR should be less than or equal to 40%.
Capital	Can your client accumulate assets while repaying debt? Assets – Liabilities = Net worth	Net worth should be higher than the requested loan amount.
Credit history	How has your client used credit in the past? Credit bureau scores use past borrowing to predict repayment behaviour.	Determine: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Acceptable Beacon score • Length of credit history • Depth of credit information • Delinquency history
Character	What characteristics influence a decision? Factors include: stability of your client's career and residence, and willingness to provide complete and accurate information.	Look at: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Occupation type • Length of employment • Length at residence

Finally, if all looks good, apply online.

After understanding your client's situation and their needs, complete their RSP loan application online through EASE (Electronic Application Submission Entry), where you can quickly and easily enter, save, print, submit, and track all the way to funding an RSP loan application on behalf of your clients.

There are two ways to get registered with EASE:

- Log on to b2bbank.com/ease and complete the EASE enrollment page
- Contact a B2B Bank Client Service Representative at 1-800-263-8349
